

The Oregon Trail

«My new home
cost me everything
I love...»

“We have a decision to make... If we do not leave now, in early May, we will run into terrible weather & swollen rivers. We must choose between waiting until next spring to travel or leave now without an experienced guide. Any able-bodied adult can put himself or herself forward as our leader ...”

